“Power of Director General to require security

34. (1) The Director General may require any person to give security or further security of such amount and in such manner as the Director General may determine for the payment of any customs duty which is or may become due and payable from the person.

(2) Where any security has been required to be given under subsection (1), no person shall move goods under customs control unless such security has been given.”.
New Part IVa

22. The principal Act is amended by inserting after Part IV the following Part:

“PART IVa

TRANSIT AND TRANSHIPMENT

Transits allowed

35A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the following transits are allowed:

(a) goods imported into the country—

(i) on board a vessel, aircraft, vehicle or a railway carriage to be transported through Malaysia from the place of import in Malaysia whether the goods were unloaded or not from the vessel, aircraft, vehicle or railway carriage to a place of exit from where the goods are to be taken out from Malaysia; or

(ii) on board a vessel, aircraft, vehicle or railway to be transported through Malaysia from the place of import in Malaysia to a place under customs control;

(b) movement of goods from a place under customs control to a place of exit in Malaysia for the purpose of export; and

(c) movement of goods under customs control from a place to another place in Malaysia.

(2) The payment of customs duties for the imported or exported goods which moved in transit under subsection (1) may be temporarily suspended subject to such conditions as determined by the Director General.
Commencement and completion of transit procedure

35b. (1) Subject to subsection (4), the transit procedure commences when the goods are cleared for transit and completes when such goods are cleared and released for another customs procedure approved by the proper officer of customs or for home consumption.

(2) Goods moved under the transit procedure shall reach the destination point as indicated in the declaration, and be exported within the period as determined by the Director General.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the transit procedure, in relation to any goods, ends before its completion if it is interrupted by any of the following circumstances:

(a) the release of the goods for the transit procedure is withdrawn;

(b) the goods have been—
   (i) released for home consumption not according to the approval given by the proper officer of customs;
   (ii) released for export not according to the approval given by the proper officer of customs; or
   (iii) moved not under customs control;

(c) the goods have been abandoned;

(d) the goods have been seized under this Act or any other written law; or

(e) the goods are destroyed, lost or unaccounted for.

(4) Without prejudice to any proceedings under this Act, where any dutiable goods moved under transit procedure ends before its completion as a result of the circumstances under subsection (3), the owner of the goods or his agent shall be liable to pay the duty leviable on such dutiable goods and any security furnished under this Act may be forfeited and paid into the Consolidated Fund.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Safeguard against any unauthorized interference with goods in transit

35c. (1) The Director General may require the owner of the goods to take the necessary measures to safeguard against any unauthorized interference with goods in transit.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with the request made by the Director General under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Determination of customs ports and airports for transit

35d. (1) The Director General may determine—

(a) the customs ports and airports where goods may be off-loaded from vessels or aircraft for transit; or

(b) the customs ports and airports where goods may be loaded on board vessels or aircrafts for export from Malaysia under the transit procedure.

(2) No person shall load or off-load goods for transit except at the customs port or airport as determined under subsection (1).

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.
Determination on routes for transit

35f. (1) The Director General may determine the routes, by road or railway, over which goods may be transported under the transit procedures.

(2) No person shall transport goods for the purpose of transit operation over a road or railway route other than a route determined under subsection (1).

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Persons entitled to submit declaration for transit

35f. The following persons are entitled to submit declarations and supporting documents to clear goods for the purpose of transit:

(a) the owner of the goods;

(b) the licensed carrier or any other person as approved by the Director General under subsection 35f(2); or

(c) a customs agent.

Movement of goods in transit

35g. (1) Subject to subsection (2), no goods shall be moved in transit (including transhipment) by road except by a licensed carrier.

(2) The Director General may, in special circumstances and subject to such conditions as determined by him, approve any person other than a licensed carrier to move goods in transit and transhipment.
(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or the conditions under subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Licensed carrier

35h. (1) The Director General may grant a licence to any person to act as a licensed carrier subject to such terms and conditions as he may deem fit and he may suspend or withdraw such licence.

(2) In granting a licence under subsection (1), the Director General may require such security to be furnished as he may consider adequate to cover the customs duty payable on the goods moved and for the faithful and incorrupt conduct of such licensed carrier and of the licensed carrier’s agents and employees acting for the licensed carrier both as regards to the customs and the licensed carrier’s employers.

(3) The licensed carrier who carries out the transit or transhipment operation shall ensure such operation is carried out and completed in accordance with this Act and the necessary measures required by the Director General under subsection 35c(1) or 35k(1).

(4) If the licensed carrier who carries out the transit or transhipment operation is not the person who submits the declaration or other document for such operation, the licensed carrier and the person who submits the declaration shall be jointly and severally liable for the customs duty due and payable and the obligation referred to in subsection (3).

(5) If the licensed carrier who carries out the transit or transhipment operation is the person who has subcontracted the transport of the goods to another carrier, the licensed carrier and the other carrier shall be jointly and severally liable for the customs duty due and payable and the obligation referred to in subsection (3).
(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Transhipment goods to be deposited in warehouse

351. (1) Goods arriving in Malaysia for transhipment and landed at a customs port or airport to await the arrival of the vessel or aircraft to which they are intended to be transhipped shall, if they are dutiable or prohibited on import or export, as the case may be, or belong to a class of such goods, be deposited in a customs or licensed warehouse, or a warehouse or other place approved by the Director General, until such goods are loaded on board the vessel or aircraft and transported out of Malaysia.

(2) The owner or agent of the goods for transhipment is liable to any storage charges, handling charges, warehouse rental and other charges at the rates applicable to such goods or, if such rates are not prescribed, at the prescribed rates applicable to such goods prior to transportation out of Malaysia.

(3) No goods for transhipment may be moved between two or more places under customs control at the customs port or airport where the goods were off-loaded without the prior permission of the proper officer of customs.

(4) The Director General may exempt any particular goods from the operation of this section.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Commencement and completion of transhipment procedures

35j. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the Director General may allow any goods imported to be moved under transhipment procedure subject to such conditions as determined by the Director General.
(2) The transhipment procedure commences when the goods are cleared for transhipment and completes when such goods are cleared for export.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the transhipment procedure, in relation to any goods, ends before its completion if it is interrupted by any of the following circumstances:

(a) the release of the goods for the transhipment procedure is withdrawn;

(b) the goods have been—

   (i) released for home consumption not according to the approval given by the proper officer of customs;

   (ii) released for export not according to the approval given by the proper officer of customs; or

   (iii) moved not under customs control;

(c) the goods have been abandoned;

(d) the goods have been seized under this Act or any other written law; or

(e) the goods are destroyed, lost or unaccounted for.

(4) Without prejudice to any proceedings under this Act, where any dutiable goods moved under transhipment ends before its completion as a result of the circumstances under subsection (3), the owner of the goods or his agent shall be liable to pay the duty leviable on such dutiable goods and any security furnished under this Act may be forfeited and paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Safeguard against any unauthorized interference with goods under transhipment

35k. (1) The Director General may require the owner of the goods to take the necessary measures to safeguard against any unauthorized interference with goods under transhipment.
(2) Any person who contravenes the request made by the Director General under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Non-compliance with completion periods

35L. (1) If—

(a) transhipment procedure does not commence or is not completed in accordance with subsection 35j(2); or

(b) transhipment goods loaded on board the vessel or aircraft to be transported out of Malaysia are not exported in accordance with subsection 35j(2), the licensee of the licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General, or the master of the vessel or the pilot of the aircraft on board of which the goods were to be loaded for export, as the case may be, shall—

(A) immediately notify the proper officer of customs of the delay, and the reasons for the delay; and

(B) thereafter notify the proper officer of customs regularly, of the situation with regard to the commencement and completion of the transhipment procedure.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Delivery of goods for transhipment for loading on board outgoing vessel or aircraft

35M. (1) The master of a vessel or pilot of an aircraft or the agent of the vessel or aircraft under Part VII reporting the arrival of transhipment goods shall ensure that the goods are to be loaded on board the vessel or aircraft and be transported out of Malaysia at the customs port or airport to which the transhipment goods are intended to be transhipped under section 35i.
(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

Responsibilities of licensee, owner or person handling goods for transhipment

35n. (1) Where goods are deposited under section 35i, the licensee of the licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General, the owner or the person handling such goods for transhipment, shall keep such records of the receipt, handling, storage and delivery of the goods as may be determined by the Director General.

(2) The licensee, owner or person handling such goods for transhipment referred to in subsection (1) shall—

(a) within two hours after the goods have been loaded on board such vessel or aircraft, submit to the proper officer of customs a certified statement in relation to the removal of the goods from the licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General; and

(b) immediately notify the proper officer of customs if the goods are removed from the licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General, for the purposes other than the loading of the goods on board such vessel or aircraft.

(3) The certified statement submitted under paragraph (2)(a) shall—

(a) state that such goods are for transhipment; and

(b) contain all the information as may be required by the Director General.

(4) The certified statement submitted under paragraph (2)(a) shall be submitted electronically unless approved otherwise by the Director General.
(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2), (3) or
(4) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.”.

50. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 76.

New Part VIIIa

51. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 77 the following Part:

“PART VIIIa

PETROLEUM SUPPLY BASE

Interpretation

77a. For the purpose of this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

“licensee” means any person licensed under section 77b;

“petroleum supply base” means an area licensed under section 77b.

Licensing of petroleum supply base

77b. (1) The Director General may, on payment of such fees as prescribed, issue a licence to any person to manage and administer a petroleum supply base and to carry out activities in the petroleum supply base as approved by the Director General.
(2) The licence issued under subsection (1)—

(a) shall be for such period and subject to such conditions as the Director General may specify in the licence; and

(b) may be withdrawn, suspended or cancelled by the Director General.

(3) The licensee shall, for the proper conduct of his business, furnish such security as may be required by the Director General.

(4) The licensee shall provide appropriate customs office and facilities within or at the perimeter of the petroleum supply base at the expense of the licensee.

Release of goods from petroleum supply base

77c. (1) No goods which have undergone any process in the petroleum supply base may be released for home consumption or export without the prior approval of the Director General.

(2) Subject to section 77E, if the goods referred to in subsection (1) are released from the petroleum supply base for home consumption, the customs duty on such goods shall be calculated on the basis as if such goods had been imported.

Exemption from a payment of customs duty

77d. Notwithstanding subsection 77c(2), the Minister may in any particular case exempt any person from the payment of the whole or part of such customs duty which may be payable by such person on such goods subject to such conditions as the Minister deems fit.
Remission of customs duty

77e. (1) Where in the course of carrying out any activities approved under subsection 77b(1) there is waste or refuse, the customs duty may be remitted on the quantity of goods liable to the customs duty in so much of the waste or refuse as has arisen from the activities carried out in relation to the goods which have undergone any process.

(2) If the customs duty is remitted under subsection (1), the Director General shall direct the waste or refuse to be destroyed subject to such conditions as the Director General deems fit.

(3) If no remission is granted under subsection (1), the Director General shall require customs duty to be paid on such waste or refuse as if it had been imported in that form.

Deficiency in quantity of dutiable goods at petroleum supply base

77f. (1) If it appears at any time that in any petroleum supply base there is a deficiency in the quantity of dutiable goods which ought to be found therein, the owner of the goods or the occupier of the premises shall—

(a) in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to have illegally removed such goods; and

(b) without prejudice to any proceedings under this Act, be liable to pay to the proper officer of customs the customs duty leviable on the goods found deficient.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Director General that such deficiency has been caused by unavoidable leakage, breakage or other accident, the Director General may remit the whole or any part of the customs duty leviable on the goods found deficient.”.
Amendment of Part IX

52. Part IX of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by inserting before section 87A the subheading of “C — General Provisions”; and

Substitution of section 78

53. The principal Act is amended by substituting for section 78 the following section:

“Declaration of dutiable goods on import

78. (1) Every importer of dutiable goods shall make a declaration on such goods imported, personally or by his agent, in such form as may be prescribed to the proper officer of customs—

(a) in the case of goods deposited in the customs or licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General referred to under subsection 66(1) or (3), within a period of one month from the date of the arrival or landing of such goods before the removal of such goods or any part of the goods from customs control;

(b) in the case of goods not deposited in the customs or licensed warehouse, or warehouse or other place approved by the Director General referred to under subsection 66(1) or (3), upon arrival or landing of such goods at a place of import; or

(c) in the case of goods entering the principal customs area from a free zone, upon arrival of such goods at the principal customs area.
(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the proper officer of customs may, by notice in writing, require such declaration to be submitted within three days from the date of such notice.

(3) In the case of goods imported by post, the declaration shall be made by the addressee or by his agent on demand by the proper officer of customs.”.

New sections 78A, 78B and 78C

54. The principal Act is amended by inserting after section 78 the following sections:

“Payment of duties of imported goods

78A. The customs duties and other charges leviable on goods imported shall be paid by the importer of the goods—

(a) in the case of goods referred to in paragraph 78(1)(a), within fourteen days from the date of declaration being approved by the proper officer of customs except for goods in transit;

(b) in the case of goods referred to in paragraph 78(1)(b), forthwith upon the arrival of such goods;

(c) in the case of goods referred to in paragraph 78(1)(c), forthwith upon the arrival of such goods; and

(d) in the case of goods referred to in subsection 78(3), within fourteen days from the date of the declaration being approved by the proper officer of customs.

Declaration of dutiable goods before arrival

78B. (1) Notwithstanding section 78, any importer of dutiable goods may make a declaration, personally or by his agent, to the proper officer of customs before arrival of the goods to be imported subject to such conditions as determined by the Director General.
(2) The importer of the dutiable goods shall pay the customs duties and other charges leviable on such goods within fourteen days from the date of the declaration being approved by the proper officer of customs.

Abandoned goods

78c. (1) Any imported goods which are not declared according to section 78 shall be deemed to be abandoned and the Director General may destroy or dispose of such goods in any manner as he deems fit.

(2) Any proceeds from the disposal of the goods under subsection (1) shall be applied to the payment of customs duties or other moneys, or recovery of any amount or charges which may be due in respect of the disposal of such goods.

(3) Any surplus of the proceeds referred to under subsection (2), if any, shall be paid—

(a) to the importer, if known; and

(b) into the Consolidated Fund, if the importer cannot be found within one month of the disposal.”.

“PART Xa

ORIGIN OF GOODS, AND PREFERENTIAL AND NON-PREFERENTIAL TARIFF TREATMENT

Authorized body

99b. (1) The Minister may authorize any Government agency to perform the functions under sections 99e and 99h.

(2) The authorization under subsection (1) shall be in writing and shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister deems fit.

(3) The Minister may revoke any authorization given under subsection (1) as the Minister deems fit.

(4) Where a government agency ceases to be an authorized body under this section, that government agency shall surrender to the Minister all articles and documents received in relation to the authorization.

Issuing Authority

99c. (1) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister charged with the responsibility for international trade and industry, appoint any body or Government agency as an issuing authority to issue a preferential or non-preferential certificate of origin if the Minister is satisfied that the body or Government agency meets the prescribed criteria subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister deems fit.

(2) The Minister may revoke the appointment made under subsection (1) as the Minister deems fit.
(3) Where a body or Government agency ceases to be an issuing authority under this section, that body or Government agency shall surrender to the Minister all articles and documents received in relation to the appointment.

Application for and issuance of preferential and non-preferential certificate of origin

99d. (1) A producer or an exporter may apply for a preferential and non-preferential certificate of origin to the issuing authority.

(2) The issuing authority may, upon evaluating and determining the application for certificate of origin under subsection (1), approve the application and issue a certificate of origin subject to such terms and conditions as the authority deems fit, or refuse the application.

Registration for producing a declaration of origin

99e. (1) An importer, a producer or an exporter may apply to the authorized body for registration for the purpose of producing a declaration of origin.

(2) Upon registration under subsection (1)—

(a) an importer may produce a declaration of origin for the purposes of claiming the preferential tariff treatment under paragraph 99g(c); and

(b) a producer or an exporter may produce a declaration of origin for the purposes of claiming the preferential tariff treatment under the relevant trade agreements.

Responsibility of importer, producer or exporter

99f. (1) In any declaration of goods imported or to be exported, the importer, producer or the exporter shall give the true and correct origin of the goods declared.
(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both.

Claim for preferential tariff treatment

99c. An importer is eligible to claim for preferential tariff treatment if—

(a) he has complied with the requirement of the origin of goods under the relevant orders made under section 11 pertaining to the relevant trade agreements;

(b) he has been registered under section 99e, if applicable; and

(c) he has produced a declaration of origin or a preferential certificate of origin.

Verification of document and information

99h. (1) When there is reasonable doubt as to the authenticity of the document or to the accuracy of the information regarding the origin of the imported goods or goods to be exported or certain parts of the goods, the proper officer of customs or authorized body may make a verification as to the authenticity of the document and the accuracy of the information.

(2) Pending the verification under subsection (1), the proper officer of customs may—

(a) suspend the granting of the preferential tariff treatment; and

(b) release the goods to the importer subject to—

(i) the payment of customs duty payable under the customs duty order made under section 11; or
(ii) the payment of customs duty payable based on the preferential tariff treatment and if such preferential tariff treatment is less than the amount of customs duty payable under subparagraph (b)(i), a security for the difference being furnished.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the proper officer of customs may detain the goods if—

(a) the goods are prohibited goods; or

(b) there is a reasonable cause to believe that any form of fraud, misrepresentation, false declaration or non-disclosure of material fact has taken place at the time of import.

(4) Upon completion of the verification under subsection (1), the proper officer of customs shall—

(a) in the case where the document is authentic or the information is accurate, return the security furnished under subparagraph (2)(b)(ii); and

(b) in the case where the document is not authentic or the information is not accurate—

(i) refuse to give the preferential tariff treatment; and

(ii) forfeit the security furnished under subparagraph (2)(b)(ii).

Revocation or suspension of certificate of origin

99t. (1) The issuing authority may revoke or suspend the certificate of origin issued under section 99d if—

(a) any term or condition specified in the certificate of origin has been contravened; or

(b) the issuing authority considers that the producer or exporter who has been issued with the certificate of origin is no longer a fit and proper person to hold the certificate.
(2) Where the certificate of origin has been revoked or suspended under subsection (1), the producer or exporter shall be notified in writing of such revocation or suspension.

(3) Any person who is dissatisfied with the decision under this section may, within thirty days from the date on which notice of the decision is given, appeal to the issuing authority.”.

“Admissibility of statements and documents of persons who are dead or cannot be traced, etc.

121A. Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary—

(a) any statement made by any person to an officer of customs in the course of an investigation under this Act; and

(b) any document or copy of any document seized from any person by an officer of customs in the exercise of his powers under this Act, shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings against any person for an offence under this Act before any court if—

(A) the person who made the statement or the document or the copy of the document is dead, or cannot be traced or found;

(B) the person who made the statement or the document or the copy of the document has become incapable of giving evidence; or

(C) the attendance of the person who made the statement or the document or the copy of the document cannot be procured without an amount of delay or expense which appears to the court to be unreasonable.

Evidential provisions

121B. (1) For the purposes of any proceeding under this Act, any statement purporting to be signed by the Director
Customs (Amendment) 81

General or any officer of customs authorized by the Director General which forms part of or is annexed to the information, demand, statement of claim, shall be prima facie evidence of any fact stated therein.

(2) If a transcript of any particulars contained in a declaration or other document relating to the customs duty is certified under the hand of the Director General or any officer of customs authorized by the Director General to be a true copy of the particulars, the transcript shall be prima facie evidence as proof of those particulars.

(3) No statement made or document produced by or on behalf of any person shall be inadmissible in evidence against that person in any proceedings against him to which this section applies by reason only that he was or may have been induced to make such statement or produce such document by any inducement or promise lawfully given or made by any person having any official duty under, or being employed in the administration of this Act.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall affect the operation of Chapter IX of Part III of the Evidence Act 1950.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph 135(1)(g) or section 135b or 135c, where in any proceedings it is proved that any false statement or entry has been made in any declaration rendered under this Act by or on behalf of any person, or in any books of account or records of any person—

(a) the person shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have made the false statement or entry or to have caused the false statement or entry to be made or to have allowed it to be made with intent to evade the payment of customs duty or any prohibition of import or export, or to obtain a refund or drawback of customs duty to which the person is not entitled, as the case may be; and
(b) any other person who made any false statement or entry shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have made the false statement or entry with intent to assist the person referred to in paragraph (a) to evade the payment of customs duty or any prohibition of import or export, or to obtain a refund or drawback of customs duty to which the person referred to in paragraph (a) is not entitled.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any written law, where any officer of customs has obtained any document or other evidence in exercise of his powers under this Act, the document or copy of the document or other evidence, as the case may be, shall be prima facie evidence in any proceedings under this Act.

(7) Where any document which is to be used in any proceedings against any person for an offence under this Act is in a language other than the national language or English language, a translation of the document into the national language or English language shall be admissible in evidence where the translation is accompanied by a certificate of the person who translated the document setting out that it is an accurate, faithful and true translation and the translation had been done by the person at the instance of any officer of customs.

(8) Subsection (7) shall apply to a document which is translated, regardless of whether the document was made in or outside Malaysia, or whether the translation was done in or outside Malaysia, or whether possession of the document was obtained by any officer of customs in or outside Malaysia.”.
